Working at Godolphin and Latymer

Godolphin and Latymer is one of the country's leading independent day schools for girls. Founded in 1905, it has been both a state grammar school and an independent school in its 116 years. Located in Hammersmith, West London, close to the exciting cultural life of the capital, the school is a dynamic and energetic community of 800 girls, together with approximately 150 teaching and support staff. There are approximately 220 girls in the Sixth Form, studying for both the IB and A levels. Hammersmith itself is very conveniently situated less than 20 minutes from central London, sitting on a beautiful stretch of the River Thames and with plenty to offer, including several fine restaurants and two of London's best theatres.

Godolphin and Latymer is an academically selective school and our girls are bright, enthusiastic and inquisitive. They love learning and are increasingly demonstrating their ability to be creative and critical thinkers, keen to solve problems using their own intellectual resources. Teaching here is a most rewarding experience. Girls are motivated and engaged in their learning. Our harmonious community is socially, culturally and ethnically diverse, indicative of the cosmopolitan world of West London. Our catchment area is relatively wide, encompassing all areas of West London, plus a number of areas further afield from which girls are able to commute easily to Hammersmith because of its excellent transport links. (We are a couple of minutes from each of Hammersmith's tube stations and its bus station.) Relationships between girls and all staff are superb and we place great significance on valuing the individual and expecting the highest of standards in all that we do. The school is governed by principles of mutual respect, tolerance and consideration for others. Girls are very supportive of each other, sensitive and aware of others' needs and proud of their school and its ethos and history. A fine example of this is the extensive support given to our Bursary Fund by all sections of the school community, present and past.

Pastoral care and working collaboratively with parents is fundamental to the success of our girls. We value good communication between all sections of our community and try to be proactive in keeping up to date all who are involved with the school. The school plays a key role in the local area; girls take part in voluntary work schemes with many local businesses and institutions. We run a number of community events including; a public lecture series, the annual arts festival, monthly tea parties for the local elderly, and the weekly Ancient World Breakfast Club.

The school's facilities are excellent and the governors are aware of the need to ensure that such standards are maintained. Our sports facilities include a full-size all-weather hockey pitch and three netball courts, which convert into twelve tennis courts during the summer term, all of which are floodlit, and the Hampton Sports and Fitness Centre (new and purpose-built for September 2015), which contains a four court sports hall, a climbing wall, a dance studio and a fitness suite. Our performing arts centre, the Bishop Centre, housed in the imaginatively converted church of St John the Evangelist, together with the Rudland Music School, is also a recent example of the investment that is crucial to the school's continued development. Teaching and learning resources are plentiful and the use of ICT to facilitate learning is at the forefront of our current strategy. iPads are used by the girls in learning and all teaching staff are given iPads. The school aims to be forward-looking in its approach to teaching and learning and emphasis is placed on pedagogical development amongst all teaching staff.

Extra and super curricular activities play a fundamental part in the education we offer here. All staff play a full part in this aspect of our school's life, with numerous opportunities to lead activities, and to develop interests old and new, in school and on visits both in the UK and abroad. Girls are active participants in this programme, both as leaders and contributors, as well as benefiting from the extensive variety of the provision.

In September 2020, the Godolphin and Latymer School Foundation merged with Redcliffe School Trust, a co-educational Preparatory School in Chelsea. The Preparatory School is now known as Godolphin and Latymer Redcliffe Gardens School.

Why work at Godolphin and Latymer?

The staff are thoroughly professional, highly qualified and knowledgeable, enthusiastic and passionate about their own subjects, as well as understanding the importance of the breadth of the educational experience that we provide.

The school is characterised by a warm and welcoming atmosphere and a mutually supportive approach. Expectations of staff are high, but equally, personal workloads are carefully considered by the supportive leadership team. There are plenty of opportunities for further appropriate professional development and a generous inset budget is provided. Support staff and teaching staff are valued equally for their part in the overall success of the school and there is a strong sense of camaraderie and fun!

The governors are keen to ensure that staff remuneration is always competitive and that staff are fairly rewarded for their commitment to the school

Staff turnover is relatively low, indicating a stable staff, yet we also pride ourselves on the welcome and support that we give to new colleagues and we very much value their ideas and contributions. People enjoy working here!

Your professional duties

Your professional duties

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and responsibility.

All staff working in the School during the school day will have contact with children and will therefore be in regulated activity. As a teaching member of staff you will be working directly with, and be responsible for, the children that you teach. You are also likely to have contact with other pupils on a regular basis which may include specific pastoral or other responsibilities for pupils whom you do not teach.

You are expected to act in accordance with the aims, policies and administrative procedures of the School.

The following duties shall be deemed to be included in the professional duties which you will be required to perform:

Teaching

Planning and preparing courses and lessons.

Teaching, according to their educational need, the pupils assigned to you; setting and marking work (including examinations) to be carried out by the pupils in School or elsewhere.

Assessing, recording and reporting on the development, progress and attainment of pupils.

Other activities

Promoting the general progress and well being of individual pupils and of any class or group of pupils assigned to you.

Providing guidance and advice to pupils on educational and social matters.

Making records and reports on the personal and social needs of the pupils.

Communicating and consulting with the parents of pupils.

Communicating and co-operating with persons or bodies outside the School.

Participating in meetings arranged for any of the purposes described above.

Accompanying pupils on visits away from the School.

Participating in the extra-curricular programme.

Assessment and reports

Providing or contributing oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individual pupils and groups of pupils.

Appraisal

Participating in any arrangements that may be made for teacher review.

Further training and development

Reviewing from time to time your methods of teaching and programme of work.

Participating in arrangements for your professional development.

Educational methods

Advising and co-operating with the Head and other teachers (or any one or more of them) on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching and assessment of pastoral arrangements.

Child protection, discipline, health and safety

Promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young persons for whom you are responsible and with whom you come into contact.

Maintaining good order and discipline among the pupils and safeguarding their health and safety both when they are on the School premises and when they are engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.

Staff meetings

Participating in meetings at the School which relate to the curriculum for the School or the administration or organisation of the School, including pastoral arrangements.

Public examinations

Participating in arrangements for preparing pupils for and supervising them during public examinations and providing assessments.

Administration

Participating in administrative and organisational tasks related to such duties as are described above, including the management or supervision of persons providing support for the teachers in the School and the ordering and allocation of equipment and materials.

Attending assemblies, registering the attendance of pupils and supervising pupils, whether these duties are to be performed before, during or after School sessions.

Flexibility

You may be required to undertake such other reasonable duties from time to time as the School may reasonably require.

Management

Contributing to the selection for appointment and professional development of other teachers and non-teaching staff, including the induction and assessment of new and probationary teachers.

Co-ordinating or managing the work of other teachers.

Taking such part as may be required in the review, development and management of activities relating to the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the School.

Job description for Head of Department

As the leading subject professional, combining enthusiasm, expertise and energy with a clear sense of vision and first rate administrative skills, the Head of Department is central to the review and development of learning and teaching throughout the school. He or she inspires and motivates the members of the department to share good practice and to aim for the highest standards so that all pupils receive an excellent educational experience. Ensuring a close relationship between departmental development and whole school development is a key element of the role.

Liaising regularly with Senior Team line managers, the Head of Department is responsible to the Head for the following:

- To be exemplary in carrying out a Teacher's responsibilities.
- To contribute to the development of the aims, policies and administrative procedures of the school, to attend Heads of Departments' meetings and, in discussion with the department, produce and implement the departmental strategic plan in line with the school strategic plan.
- To manage the departmental budget, ensuring a close link between this and the departmental strategic plan.
- To participate in the recruitment of subject staff and to delegate teaching and other responsibilities fairly throughout the department, encouraging and enhancing professional development through advice and support, both generally and through Staff Review.
- To seek to achieve, through collaborative leadership and monitoring, the highest standards across the department of teaching, learning, formative and summative assessment.
- To lead the development and review of stimulating, creative and well-resourced schemes of work which aim to inspire intellectual curiosity and develop academic rigour whilst being in tune with the needs and abilities of the girls. This includes the selection of appropriate examination syllabuses.
- To pay close critical attention to curriculum developments, especially in the subject, communicating these to the department and to senior leaders; to be aware of developments in learning and teaching strategies, particularly those that help to promote independent learning and the imaginative use of ICT.
- To promote the sharing of good practice within the department; to hold weekly departmental meetings, circulating agendas and ensuring that key decisions and action points are noted.
- To ensure that expert advice about curriculum and Higher Education choices in the subject is available to girls and parents, and to oversee candidates applying to Oxford and Cambridge colleges.
- To oversee appropriate promotion of the subject through the school website and the developing intranet.
- To review annually: departmental policies, procedures, handbooks and website pages, amending and updating as required.
- To liaise with other Heads of Departments where appropriate, and engage in cross curricular activities from time to time
- To develop positive relations with girls, parents, teaching and non-teaching colleagues and the wider community and to represent the school when reasonably required.
- To be responsible for the execution of the various tasks listed in Appendix A.
- To carry out any other responsibilities reasonably required by the Head Mistress.

The department

The department offers the full breadth of Philosophy and Religious Studies. We believe that our primary objective is not to teach girls what to think, but rather how to think. We aim to equip them with the skills, resources and confidence to make their own informed decisions on a variety of spiritual, moral, social and cultural issues.

The department currently has four full time and one part time members of staff. They are all subject specialists and hold either Theology or Philosophy degrees or higher. The department is appropriately situated in a converted vicarage. All teaching rooms have been recently renovated and are equipped with IntelliDesks, smart projectors and sound systems. There is a wealth of shared resources within the department and we are able to make full use of ICT to enhance teaching and learning.

Philosophy and Religion is taught throughout the school. Our Lower School (KS3) curriculum explores the foundations of today's society. In Year 7, the focus is on the development of religious thought with a holistic overview of how the world's religions have developed and the influence that this has on today's society. In Year 8, girls spend the majority of the year undertaking a chronological study of western philosophy and meet some of the main thinkers and their most significant ideas. The end of the year focuses on eastern philosophy in order to consider an interesting contrast. Year 9 begins with a unit on key beliefs and practices in Islam, followed by an introduction to ethical theory as well as a first taste of applied ethics.

Religious Studies GCSE is an option subject in Years 10 and 11. From September 2016 we have followed the AQA Religious Studies, studying the 'Beliefs and Teachings & Practices' of Christianity and Buddhism, and 'Religion, Philosophy and Ethics in the Modern World' from a Christian perspective.

In the Sixth Form, Religious Studies is offered at A Level and Philosophy at IB Level. From September 2016 the A Level course has been the OCR Religious Studies (Philosophy of Religion, Religious Ethics and Developments in Christian Thought). For the IB, all girls study the Core Theme (What is a human being?), Aesthetics and Peter Singer's The Life You Can Save. Those taking the subject at Higher Level also study Political Philosophy and the Unseen Texts component.

Salary, hours and benefits

The salary awarded will depend on experience and qualifications of the successful candidate. The Governors review salaries each year to ensure they remain competitive. Salaries are paid by account transfer on the 25th day of each month, or the previous working day, in twelve equal payments.

Hours

Teaching staff are expected to be in School for 8.25am and the school day ends at 4.00pm (3.05pm on Fridays). However, hours are as required to fulfil the duties of this role both before and after school hours.

Benefits include:

Staff Accommodation – this may be available for new staff in a local six-unit property.

iPads – all teaching staff are given iPads for their teaching and assessment.

Longer holidays than the maintained sector.

Staff Fee Remission – staff are eligible for fee remission. The continuance and value of the school fee remission is at the discretion of the Governors.

Medical staff on site – during term time, the School employs two School Nurses providing daily cover and two School Counsellors each work two days per week. All medical staff are available to employees of the School.

Enhanced sick and maternity/paternity pay arrangements – the school offers additional support to staff via its sick and family friendly policies.

Membership of the Teachers' Superannuation Scheme - teachers are automatically enrolled into the Teachers' superannuation scheme.

Personal Accident Insurance – staff are covered for permanent disability resulting from an accident, whether at School or elsewhere. Cover is provided for 365 days of the year.

Private Medical Insurance – membership of a private medical insurance scheme is available at a reduced rate.

Advance purchase of travelcards with monthly repayments – the School will pay for your travelcard (minimum three month card) and collect the repayments, at cost, over the life of the travelcard.

Cyclescheme – the School is part of the scheme which enables staff to purchase bicycles and equipment at a tax advantageous rate and pay for the equipment over 12 months.

Lunches and Refreshments – lunches and refreshments provided in the Staff Room and Staff Dining Room are provided by the School to all members of staff, free of charge.

Fitness Facilities – staff are able to use the fitness facilities in the Hampton Sports and Fitness Centre and the school's outdoor sports facilities.

Staff wellbeing – there is a selection of wellbeing sessions that staff can attend, including acupuncture, massage, mindfulness, yoga, zumba, rock climbing and kickboxing.

Application

Please read the recruitment pack carefully, including the School's Safeguarding and Recruitment policies. Fully completed application forms should be returned to the Personnel Office at the School by post or by email to recruitment@godolphinandlatymer.com as soon as possible.

Please note that applications must be made on the school's application form. CVs alone will not be accepted.

There is no closing date for this vacancy.

Applications will be considered on receipt and interviews may occur at any stage.

Equal Opportunities

It is the policy of The Godolphin and Latymer School to ensure that all job applicants are considered equally and consistently and that no applicant is treated unfairly on any grounds including race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or religious belief, sex or sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, disability or age.

Safeguarding

Candidates should be aware that all posts in the School involve some degree of responsibility for safeguarding children. The School is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and is therefore permitted to ask job applicants to declare all convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings (including those which would normally be considered 'spent') in order to assess their suitability to work with children. You are not required to disclose a caution or conviction for an offence committed in the United Kingdom if it has been filtered in accordance with the Disclosure and Barring Service filtering rules. The successful candidate will be required to complete a Disclosure & Barring Service application. References will be sought on short-listed candidates and we may approach previous employers for information to verify particular experience and qualifications. The successful candidate will also be required to provide original certificates of qualification and may be asked to undergo a medical examination prior to taking up the post.

Charitable status

The Charity called The Godolphin and Latymer School (charity registration number 312699) is administered by The Godolphin and Latymer School Foundation, a charitable company limited by guarantee (Company number 3598439).
